1 of 1 review helpful A hodge podge of essays By Kevin First I should note that I am only about three quarters of the way through this collection of papers I bought it used for a total of 4 and at that price I m quite pleased with it As suggested by other reviewers I have found that it is a rather scattered collection some papers are good some merely okay and others less so It is also evident that many of th I am a philosopher because I am a Christian writes Brian Leftow To many intellectuals this probably sounds like saying that I am a dog because I am a cat Indeed prejudice against religious belief runs deep in the academy in particular many philosophers hold that faith is incompatible with their profession But Thomas Morris has met that view head on by asking a distinguished group of philosophers to write about the union of faith and reason in their lives
