translated by kenelm foster op and Form without Matter: Empedocles and Aristotle on Color Perception:

Mark Eli Kalderon presents an original study in the philosophy of perception written in the medium of historiography He considers the phenomenology and metaphysics of sensory presentation through the examination of an ancient aporia Specifically he argues that a puzzle about perception at a distance is behind Empedocles theory of vision Empedocles conceives of perception as a mode of material assimilation but this raises a puzzle about color vision since thought provoking as well as refreshing Notre Dame Philosophical s Online A book of great value to students of Aristotle s theory of perception especially students who are also interested in contemporary work on perception Philosophie
