Plato's Literary Garden: How to Read a Platonic Dialogue:

Plato's dialogues are universally acknowledged as standing among the masterworks of the Western philosophic tradition. If Plato did not view his written dialogues as works of philosophy, how did he conceive them and how should readers view them? In Plato's Literary Garden, Kenneth M. Sayre brings over 40 years of research to bear on these questions. An extremely well-written, accessible but demanding introduction to Plato's dialogues.
