By Josef Loessl, John W. Watt : Interpreting the Bible and Aristotle in Late Antiquity: The Alexandrian Commentary Tradition between Rome and Baghdad Interpreting the Bible and Aristotle in Late Antiquity: The Alexandrian Commentary Tradition between Rome and Baghdad:

This book brings together sixteen studies by internationally renowned scholars on the origins and early development of the Latin and Syriac biblical and philosophical commentary traditions. It casts light on the work of the founder of philosophical biblical commentary Origen of Alexandria and traces the developments of fourth and fifth century Latin commentary techniques in writers such as Marius Victorinus, Jerome and Boethius. The focus then moves east to the begin. Not very often do we receive so much from the limited space of a single volume. Readers no doubt will be enriched by following the answers offered in this significant study. Journal of Theological Studies. The book abounds with illuminating comments on the
